The Moran Group Makes Organizational Changes to Support Continued Growth

Northbrook, IL – The Moran Group has announced organizational changes to promote continued growth in the markets they serve. Effective December 1st, 2011, Brian Moran will assume the role of Moran Group CEO and Brian Ramsey will become the Moran Group's President. These changes are being made to capitalize on the increasing number of market opportunities being developed by the six Moran Group operating companies.

Mr. Moran, who previously held the position of Moran Group President (the corporate umbrella of all of the Moran Group companies), will be fulfilling the role of CEO of the Moran Group so he can devote additional focus on developing relationships with Moran Group clients, industry leaders and organized labor groups. He will continue to provide leadership on strategic issues related to overall company direction, acquisitions and recruitment of top management talent.

As President of the Moran Group, Brian Ramsey will be responsible for overall marketing, sales, operations and business planning of the Moran Group companies. Mr. Ramsey has served as President of one of the Moran Group companies (F.E. Moran Special Hazard Systems) since 2003 and has been a member of the Moran Group Board of Directors since 2004. During his tenure with the Moran Group, Mr. Ramsey has helped F.E. Moran Special Hazard Systems attain a position as an industry leader in its target markets. He will be bringing more than 30 years of industry experience to the position.

Mr. Ramsey's successor as President of F.E. Moran Special Hazard Systems will be Daryl Bessa, another internal employee who has been integral in the success of the company. Mr. Bessa has been with F.E. Moran Special Hazard Systems since 1979 and has been Vice President of Operations since 2001.

Of the organizational changes, Mr. Moran says: "As a dynamic company that is perceptive to the needs of our customers, these changes will strengthen our ability to deliver innovative, high-quality solutions and bolster our presence in the markets we serve. We are fortunate to have experienced, talented personnel within our company prepared to step into these positions."

For more than 50 years the Moran Group has been an industry leader in providing life safety and life comfort services to the commercial, industrial, residential, retail and institutional markets. Diversified in both discipline and geography, The Moran Group offers a wide variety of services related to complete mechanical systems, plumbing and fire protection systems.
